Topical Ointment Administration-Permission

I, _____, give permission for my child, _____, to have The Modern Schoolhouse, apply the topical ointments listed below.

I understand that topical ointments, such as lotion, lip balm, diaper cream, and sunscreen, can be applied only as a preventive measure. Where required by licensing, application to open, oozing sores or continued use on a persistent diaper rash requires a Medication Authorization Form signed by me and my child's physician.

I understand that the topical ointment provided by me must:

- be appropriate for use on a child
- be applied according to instructions on the label
- be labeled with the child's full name; and
- be handed to a staff member and not left in a diaper bag or cubby.

I give my permission for the staff at The Modern Schoolhouse to apply:

- _____(diaper cream)
- _____(sunscreen)
- _____(other)

as needed from: ____/____/____ to: ____/____/____ (not to exceed one year).
